Sound young female stock of varying ages will be offered at all sales and facilities given to bona fide agriculturists to start small Breeding Herds which will be second to none in the country, and will be a steady source of satisfaction and income. This opportunity to breeders is unique and will probably not be repeated in future.

Conditions.

1. The sale of steers aged 5 years and under in age for the highest bid is subject to up-set-prices fixed for the animals; and for older animals it will be discretionary with the Superintendent, Amrut Mahal Department, to accept or reject the highest or any bid; as a rule only heifers above 10 years old will be put up for auction, and knocked down for the highest satisfactory bid forthcoming; young heifers will be put up to auction subject to upset prices fixed for them.

2. The bidders to whom animals are knocked down in the sale shall pay 25 per cent deposit forthwith, failing which, the animals will be resold on the spot and any loss that may result will be recovered from the defaulting bidder, but he will not be entitled to any amount realised in excess in the resale.

3. The balance of the amount shall be paid within 7 days from the date and animal taken delivery of, failing which, the animal will remain at purchaser's risk subject to grazing fees at Re. 1 per month and interest on amount due at 9 per cent per annum.

4. As the animals put up for sale will be open to inspection and in the open enclosure the Department will not accept any responsibility for any defect not noticed at the time.

5. Persons who are considered of doubtful solvency may be required to deposit from Rs. 10 to Rs. 25 to ensure bona fides at the discretion of the sale officer, before they are allowed to bid.

6. The sales and the realisation of the proceeds thereof is subject to the provisions of the Land Revenue Code and Rules, and the defaulter will be liable to the procedure laid down therein; all sums due will be recovered as arrears of revenue under the rules for recovery of land revenue.

7. As the sale is public one, no bids or darkhasts will be received outside the sale enclosure for animals put up for auction; persons desiring to purchase any one or more animals by darkhasts for upset prices should make their offer in open sale.

8. Every possible facility will be offered to purchasers and if they so desire, arrangements will be made to train the animals to rope or yoke on their agreeing to pay training charge of Rs. 10 per animal for rope, and Rs. 15 per head for yoke training, in addition to grazing fee of Re. 1 per head per month, and feeding charges of Rs. 5 per head per month, the minimum period for training being three months; the arrangements will be subject to special approval.

9. No withdrawal or takarar will be admitted once the bid is offered in open sale, and the final record of the sale in the Register and the signing thereof by the purchaser which is compulsory shall be tantamount to acceptance of all liabilities imposed in Sale Conditions.

10. In all matters connected with the sale the decision of the Amrut Mahal Superintendent will be final.
